War Chest Drive Has Gone Over the Top

Farmers Are Saving Record Row Crop

Wheat Pasture Is Very Fine

Help Situation Bad, With Soldiers and Prisoners Coming to Aid of Farmers

Practically 90% of the wheat acreage for 1945 has been planted and all of the early wheat is now making good pasture. The only wheat land remaining to be planted is that on which there is feed crops that have not yet been gathered.

It is expected that a large number of cattle will be brought into the county for pasture during the winter. Cattlemen thruout the Southwest have been here recently looking over the wheat acreage, anticipating bringing in many cattle for the winter.

A record row crop is being harvested. This crop is the best in five or six years, and is said to be one of the best that the county has ever produced. No help is available except for those farmers who have been able to secure prison labor from the Hereford camp, or to bring soldiers from the Amarillo field who will work in the fields on their day off. Most of the Italians from the Hereford camp have been very good help this year. The soldiers from the Amarillo Field are the best that the farmers have ever secured, but their assistance has been limited owing to the small amount of time they have to work.

A light rain of .35 inches fell in Canyon Sunday morning. All parts of the county were covered by this rain. The Sunnyhill community received 1.75 inches, which was the largest amount of rain to fall in the county. All of this rain was of great benefit to the growing wheat.

The coldest wave of the fall hit last Wednesday, bringing a light frost. However, the frost did no damage to the crops.

Time to Kill Heel Fly Grubs

Treatment For Grubs Is Given by County Agent W. H. Upchurch

It is again time for all who own cattle to think about killing the heel fly grubs. The only method of control that has proven successful is to kill the grubs before they emerge through the hide on the backs of cattle. This occurs from November to January. Treatment should start when the first grubs are mature, (beginning to turn brown.) This stage will be reached in a few weeks now and if we are to get a good kill, treatment should start in November. Three treatments should be used at three to four week intervals.

If the treatment for grubs is combined with dipping for lice the time between treatments should be about 20 days in order to kill all the lice. Two treatments will get the lice. Therefore the third treatment (either the first or the last) may be applied to the backs of cattle without dipping.

Use cube powder (5% rotenone content) and wettable sulphur thoroughly mixed. For dipping use one pound cube, ten pounds wettable sulphur to 100 gallons water. For treating a few cattle for grubs only, you can do a good job with the same mixture in the form of a dry powder rubbed into the hide along the back. If the dry treatment is used make it about one-third cube (of 5% rotenone content) and two-thirds wettable sulphur.

Figures furnished by the packing houses show that over 750,000 cattle slaughtered in Texas annually are grubby and are worth nearly $4.00 per head less because of grub damage to the hide and the meat.

This loss is in addition to the damage to the growing animal, and failure to make good gains, because of being loaded with the heel fly grubs.

The cost of treatment is very low compared to the damage usually done by grubs.

Dr. Angie Debo Does Not Like Trees in Canyon

Dr. Angie Debo has returned to her home at Marshall, Okla., after spending a few days with friends here.

Miss Debo came to Canyon 20 years ago. Since leaving here she has published eight books and has another one ready for the press.

Miss Debo stated that one thing which had changed in Canyon since she left did not please her: She returned to Canyon expecting to see the wide open prairies as they were when she came here. She loved those prairies. Now the trees have grown so much that she could no longer see the great distances to which she was accustomed on the Plains.

"I simply want to push the trees back so that I can see," stated Dr. Debo.

But residents of the Plains do not agree with the noted historian on this point.

Harp Is Head of Home Service

Takes Over Place Left Vacant by Death of C. H. Jarrett Last Week

Guy Harp is the new Home Service Chairman of the Randall County Red Cross, having consented to take over the work which the late C. H. Jarrett had done since the beginning of the war. Mr. Harp had worked with Mr. Jarrett and is well acquainted with every phase of the work to be done.

Miss Elva Fronabarger is the new Junior Red Cross Chairman, succeeding Mrs. Andy Walsh who asked to be relieved of the work. Miss Fronabarger states that she feels sure there are several people who will assist with the work of the junior organization.

Young men of Canyon who have been overseas and who have been home recently have had much to say about the Red Cross. S-Sgt. T. S. Stevenson, Jr. gave the opinion of all of them when he said, "I think the Red Cross is the greatest organization in the world. I do not see how the men in the Service could get along without it."

Election Will Be Held November 7 at the City Hall

Voting in the general election on November 7 will be held at the City Hall, according to D. A. Shirley, Judge of the election.

The ballots are the largest in the history of Texas elections, but are not complicated for the voters who study the ballot in advance of going to the polls.

Requests for absentee ballots has been larger than usual. County Clerk A. B. Holt has mailed out 86 absentee ballots on request of citizens who will not be in the county on election day.

Collections Are Up to '43 Mark

Several Community Leaders Are Yet to Report on Their Collections to War Fund

Committees and workers on the National War Chest Drive report a total of $3934.64 collected at noon yesterday. A considerable amount is to be turned in yet, according to directors Upchurch and Morris.

Later a more detailed report will be given on distribution of collections. The total to date is higher than that collected last year. Since the quota for this county was higher than last year it will be necessary for a still larger sum to be raised if the county holds the same percentage of collections.

Those connected with the work wish to express deep appreciation to the Southwestern Public Service personnel for its most excellent cooperation and for the untiring efforts in keeping the office open to late hours last week. Not enough could be said in thanks for the aid in tabulation and record keeping that was rendered by the bookkeepers there.

If you have not been contacted and wish to make a contribution, that money will be received at the Southwestern Public Service office now.

Treatment Time For Borers on The Peach Trees

J. F. Rosborough, Horticulturist for the A. & M. College Extension Service, recommends paradichlorebenzene, commonly called PDB, as most effective against peach tree borers when used from the middle of October to mid-November.

No soil preparation is necessary in administering this treatment except to break the crust for 15 to 18 inches around the tree and remove any grass or weeds. Place the PDB crystals in a circle about three inches from the trunk on top of the soil. For mature trees one ounce is used, and for young trees one-half ounce is enough. The crystals should be covered with dirt immediately after being applied, and firmly packed with the back of a shovel to make a cone-shaped mound. The dirt should be fairly dry. The cone should be torn down after four or five weeks and the remaining crystals removed.

This treatment is recommended only for the true peach tree borer which works near the surface of the ground.

New Window at Thompson's In Use

Display windows of the Thompson Furniture Department could well be called "The Home Beautiful" windows.

Through elimination of the two-door entrance and two small center windows, larger windows were built on either side. New finishing and new lighting facilities make for more advantageous arrangement of displays of the lovely pieces of furniture to be found here.

This is one more business house to dress itself up during the summer.

Umbarger Papers of Last Week Were Lost in the Mails

The package of the Canyon News for Umbarger was lost in the mails last week.

The News was notified Tuesday by the postmistress at Umbarger that she had so far failed to receive the package. Owing to the fact that newspapers are not allowed to print extra copies of each edition, The News had no extra copies to furnish the readers at Umbarger. We regret this very much.

The package was mailed with the balance of the mail Thursday morning, but was miscarried for some reason.

This is the first time that a package of newspapers have been entirely lost, but in several instances they have been miscarried and were delayed several days. The extra heavy mail is given as a reason.

The Champ can't stand it longer. He announced when he was nominated for a 4th term that he would only make a nominal campaign. He was then sure that the people would demand that he stay in the White House for 16 long years. He was the indispensable man, according to his close advisers. But the picture has changed. His rampant labor speech to the teamsters backfired. His fireside talk to the Democratic workers did him no good. The hard punches which Dewey has been delivering to the administration are drawing the popular vote close to the danger line. As a result the President will take to the road, in spite of former announcements, and will make some real campaign speeches. No one loves the rough and tumble game of politics better that the President. He likes to call names, and likes to have his opponent call him names. This creates political excitement, and the President likes excitement. Soon you will hear the soothing voice of the President making other appeals to the voters for support. He knows that there are vital states which he must carry in order to win for four more years, and will carry his fight into those states. In the meanwhile, the minor lights of the New Deal camp continue the royal battle, with no blows barred.

People of this nation are surprised that the people of Germany are taking such punishment at the hands of our armed forces and are still standing by Hitler. General Eisenhower has given the people warning time and time again that their nation will be destroyed piece by piece if they do not overthrow Hitler and surrender. The peace terms are still unconditional surrender. Hitler and his gang seem to be determined that Germany shall be entirely destroyed rather than surrender. They know that when the Germans quit that Hitler and his group of murderers will pay with their lives. This might be the answer to the problem of what to do with Germany. From Japan there are rumors that Jap military leaders are now assured of defeat and that in all probability they will kill themselves in order that Japan may surrender before the nation is entirely destroyed. This would be a very peculiar turn of events if the Jap military leaders should take such a course. It would indicate that after all they were more humane than the Hitler gang.

Jimmie Allred is doing a lot of political campaigning in Texas for the re-election of Roosevelt for a 4th term. Jimmie is convinced that 16 years are not too long to hold onto political jobs in view of the fact that he fed at the political trough for a longer time. He would have been there for life had he not accepted orders from the White House and resigned the federal bench to run for Senator. Jimmie is getting pretty hungry and needs another political appointment. Naturally he will do everything within his power for the President, who was such a great benefactor as to pull him away from the life-time job he was holding. But Jimmie is still hopeful. Maybe during the coming four years his benefactor will be able to find him another public job. If that job is to be approved by the Senate, Jimmie will have to keep his weather eye on W. Lee O'Daniel, who blocked Jimmie's return to a federal bench following Jimmie's unsuccessful attempt to keep the Senator from going to Washington.

We are going to have a double Thanksgiving in Texas in spite of the Act of Congress setting the fourth Thursday in November as the legal Thanksgiving Day. There are five Thursdays in November this year. When Congress set the fourth Thursday in November as Thanksgiving, rather than the last Thursday, it failed to consult the athletic departments of the University and A. & M. College. Thanksgiving is the day for the annual big football game. This game was scheduled for the last Thursday in November, and therefore the Texas Thanksgiving must be on that day or the feelings of the football fans will be badly smeared. The Governor is an able diplomat. He looked over the football schedule and decided to stay with the football fans rather than the laws of Congress. Therefore, we shall again have the confusion of two Thanksgiving Days although each community will probably decide for itself which of the two that it will observe.

The Gallup poll of Sunday shows that Roosevelt now leads with 51% of the popular vote to 49% for Dewey. But it takes 266 electoral votes to win, and the president has only 243 of these for sure. Dewey has 228 sure electoral votes. There are four states on the fence with 60 votes, and these are the ones on which the big guns of both parties will be turned loose during the closing days of the campaign. Both parties are playing their political cards carefully during this closing period in order to make no mistakes. A slip now might be fatal to either candidate. Perhaps the President will not make any more statements which the White House will have to correct as soon as he has finished. The Republican charge is that he has badly failed in health. If more such mistakes are made, the Republicans will have the right to push this point with the voters.

The British press at first considered that the President had a walk away with the election, and ignored Dewey. Of recent weeks that press has been printing much about Dewey in order that the people know with what manner of man Churchill will have to deal should Dewey win in November. The British prefer Roosevelt because they expect Churchill to talk Roosevelt out of everything the British want at the peace table.

Don't cash your War Bonds just to spend the money. The time will come after the war when you will need that money worse than you do now.

The big shots from Washington are in Texas looking over the record of Pappy O'Daniel. They want to know his method of raising thousands of dollars in his campaign to defeat the President. O'Daniel has set a new high in his methods of getting money for political purposes. When he ran for Governor, his attractive daughter carried the flour barrel through the crowds and gathered funds for Pappy When any voter dropped a quarter in the barrel, he was buying an interest in the campaign of W. Lee O'Daniel, and therefore he was going to protect his investment with his vote. This campaign is different. Quarters will not print thousands of copies of a newspaper and buy time on the radio. The Senator is now using a nation-wide hookup of 71 radio stations, five and six times a week. Pinmoney will not pay such a big radio bill. It takes real money, and it is reported that the Senator is touching the big boys at the rate of 10 to 20 thousand dollars each. It was first reported that he would spend $100,000 in this campaign, but evidently he is spending a much larger amount, judging by the number of stations that he is now using. Jumping his radio stations from 13 to 71 takes more than grandma's dime or quarter, and Uncle Ben's folding money becomes a mere pittance. The one ambition of O'Daniel is to defeat Roosevelt. The President pulled Jimmie Allred out of a $10,000 per year job in a vain effort to defeat Senator O'Daniel. It would be a crowning achievement of the Senator's meteoric political career to point to the fact that in 1944 he staged a campaign which turned a sufficient number of votes to defeat the President. November 7 will tell the tale.

Joe Stalin is a realist and does not indulge in compliments unless he thinks they will pay off so far as Russia is concerned. Stalin and Churchill were not friendly at their last meeting. Roosevelt had to stand between the two in order to keep them out of each others hair. Churchill was excused as being a very sick man at the time. The two are meeting again in Moscow. This time the President is at home looking after his political fences. Little has come out of Russia as to the progress which is being made. All released reports are naturally very favorable. However, Stalin likes to put on big banquets where there is lots of eating and much drinking, with plenty of toasts. At such a banquet the other day Stalin took occasion to pay very high tribute to America and what we had furnished Russia in the campaign to crush Germany. Had it not been for this material Russia could never have succeeded, according to Stalin. Maybe Stalin was playing politics more than expressing an opinion. He knows that Churchill is in there fighting to preserve the British Empire. He knows that Churchill was glad to see Hitler overrun Russia at a time when the Huns could have jumped the English Channel and taken England; he knows that Churchill is using his troops in the Balkans to further the British Empire, rather than help the United Nations on the West; he knows that Churchill was opposed to opening the 2nd front, but insisted on the Italian campaign in order to strengthen the British supply line; he knows that the United States is not after any of the Russian territory, or seeking to dominate in Russian affairs. No wonder Stalin has thawed out and is willing to admit that we gave Russia the munitions with which to crush Hitler and send the Huns chasing home. Perhaps this praise did not suit Churchill, since it was an open bid for future pleasant relations with America, but there was nothing Churchill could do about it.

The same old political question arises. The News has been asked time and again, "Being a Democrat, and having voted in the Democratic primary what will happen to me if I vote for Dewey or the Texas Regulars in the general election." The answer is simply this: No one can do anything to any Democrat who decides to vote in such a manner. The pledge on the primary ballot is a matter of law, but there is no way to force any voter to go to the polls and void his conscience in voting for any nominees who happens to get on the November ballot. Furthermore, no pledge was taken in the Texas primaries in regard to the presidential candidates. The Newsman happened to be a member of the legislature when the brass collared boys attempted to punish Texas Democrats who supported Hoover rather than vote for the Democratic nominee, Al Smith. A lot of oratory was the sole result. Those who would have kicked all Hoover followers out of the Democratic party could find no law, or any court ruling whereby such a thing could be done. Therefore, when you go to the polls in November you may vote for any group of Presidential electors that you like. Perhaps four years hence you will vote directly for President and Vice President rather than for the antiquated form of electors.

"The Presidency is not a prize to be won by mere glittering promises. It is not a commodity to be sold by high-pressure salesmanship and national advertising. The Presidency is a most sacred trust and it ought not to be dealt with on any level other than an appeal to reason and humanity." F. D. Roosevelt, Oct. 23, 1940.

If you think for a minute that the President is following his own advice of four years ago, follow the campaign of Sidney Hillman and Harry Bridges, the CIO and Communists who are turning heaven and earth to re-elect Roosevelt. From every indication the White House is still "clearing everything with Sidney," in spite of all vigorous denials.

In order to offset the unfavorable publicity as to how Sidney Hillman was attempting to fool the farmers into joining his unholy outfit, the President has shooshed Claude Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture, off on an 11-state speaking tour to tell the farmers what a great friend the administration is to the farmers. Farmers are the great independent thinking body of the nation and resent the attempt of Hillman to regiment them under CIO . The President has lost more with the farmers than with any other group in the nation.

What a shame that neither the Republicans nor the Democrats will allow Willkie's ashes to lie in peace. Each party is claiming that if Willkie had lived he would be in its camp. Facts are that no one but Willkie had the authority to speak for him—and Willkie died before speaking his mind on the presidential situation.

The President is seeking a law whereby the little music czar may be punished. That's News: First of all, when has the New Deal failed to come with an executive order to take the place of law; second, when has the President ever punished a defiant labor czar?

Along the "Route to Tokyo"

13,147 miles of track serving the Southwest

Santa Fe, as the map above shows, is an important lap on the "Route to Tokyo."

That's why, during the past several months, travelers have seen armies of "Men at Work" all along our lines.

Capacity of our yards has been increased.

Curves have been ironed out so trains may get around them faster.

New Diesel "head ends" are pulling bigger loads up mountain grades.

Ingenious Centralized Traffic Control Systems have been installed at important points so the same rails can carry 50 per cent more traffic.

A new Santa Fe bridge is now being built across the Colorado River.

We have enlarged our capacity to meet the increasing loads of war. There will be no slackening of our job until the war is completely won.

Driving that's easy on passengers and cars is one far-reaching good outcome of War!

Handling the wheel and pedals like a professional became a wartime necessity. It favored the car—and quit scaring the rear-seat riders. Now it's a great point of pride. Yet an even more envied proof of fine car-sense is to own an engine that isn't showing its age. That demands sparing your engine from acids; from fiercely corrosive acids inside. You can do it by having your engine OIL-PLATED. All you need is a change to Conoco Nth motor oil...oil that OIL-PLATES.

In the extra-limited seasonal driving that's now the rule, your engine "hoards" a surplus of acids. Every explosion adds to these acids. You don't drive enough for engine heat to eject them safely. But they won't go biting right through OIL-PLATING! This highly corrosion-resistant surfacing is attached all over your engine's fine inner finish as if by magnetism—an effect you must credit to costly pioneer research, responsible for the special ingredient in popular-priced Conoco Nth oil, patented.

You can't apply keener intelligence to the car that must last you, than to equip it with an OIL-PLATED engine—simply by changing to Conoco Nth oil for Winter. Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station knows your correct grade. Go now. Continental Oil Company

TOWN and FARM in WARTIME

Prepared by OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

THERE'S MORE SUGAR COMING

Housewives who have found their sugar stamps temporarily worthless because their grocer's sugar shelf was bare may take hope, now that the War Food Administration promises stepped-up production from the nation's sugar-beet factories in the West and Midwest. On September 1 the nation's sugar inventory was lower than on any date since 1935. During the first eight months of this year, 483,000 tons more of sugar were distributed in the U. S. than in the same period of 1943. Most of the increase went to civilian usage for preserving and canning. In one form or another, civilians got most of the increase—in preserving and canning of fruits and vegetables, in larger than normal production of condensed milk and in supplemental allotments for other purposes.

Reclassify Men 38 and Over

Men over 38 who have been anxiously watching the mail-box to learn of their final disposition under National Selective Service can now relax and continue their civilian work with the assurance that they are in an age group not acceptable for induction into military service. Local boards have been instructed to place registrants of 38 and over in IV-A, to retain in I-C all men honorably discharged and to discontinue the I-A (L) classification. Men in class I-C may not be removed from this classification without action by the Director of Selective Service. Local Boards will put in other deferred classifications men found physically acceptable for limited military service only, who have heretofore been placed in class I-A (L).

FARMERS-RANCHERS TO GET GUNS

New shotguns and rifles for farmers, ranchers and law enforcement agencies are on the way, the War Production Board announced recently. Production of 495,000 shotguns and rifles has been authorized, but it takes from three to six months to turn out such firearms.

HEY, KIDS, LISTEN TO THIS

You can tell Dad and Mom that you got it from WPB that there will be a few toy soldiers and miniature automobiles and trucks made out of zinc on the market this year. The folks may not be able to buy new electric lights for the Christmas Tree, but they can get tinsel and those gorgeous colored blown glass ornaments. Tell the folks that while toys will be a little higher they will also be a little better—less paperboard and more wood and metal. And if you're looking for ideas to put into a letter to Santa Claus, here's some information to keep in mind—rubber for toys, still prohibited—tricycles, scooters and other heavy toys, not being made—electric trains, none, but some new track for electric railroad maintenance is on the market—toys with gears, not to be had—some toy wagons with wooden wheels and some with metal wheels—fewer sleds than before the war and some of them with wooden runners—some doll carriages with metal chassis, others with wood—doll carriage tires, to be made of "mud," the residue by-product of reclaimed rubber—dolls in pre-war quantities, with curls, moving eyes and even voices—plenty of teddy bears and stuffed toys—more of those new plastic doll dishes and a few modern, steel unbreakable dishes—both metal and wood construction sets, 10,000 of the metal ones with electric motors—a "fair" supply of chemistry sets—a "limited" supply of checkers, dominoes, dart boards and other games this year because your "G. I." brother is getting some of your share.

APPLE CEILING STAYS UP

Reduced apple yields have led the Office of Price Administration to extend the September increase in apple ceiling prices to cover the rest of the season in nine of the 11 states in which OPA granted a September increase. The nine states covered are Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, Tennessee, Kentucky and Arkansas. The increase of 1.267 cents a pound—equivalent to 57 cents a box or bushel—will be carried through wholesale and retail transactions to the consumer.

U. S. AND U. K. EXCHANGE RUBBER

More than half of the crude rubber produced by the British Commonwealth is coming to the United States as reverse lend-lease this year, the Foreign Economic Administration announces. Meanwhile, the United States is supplying to the United Kingdom under lend-lease, 86,000 tons of general purpose synthetic rubber, together with tires. This quantity of synthetic rubber is equivalent in manufacturing processes to approximately 70,000 tons of crude rubber. This exchange works out very satisfactorily, FEA says, inasmuch as natural rubber is essential to synthetic rubber in most production programs. The manufacture of truck, bus and aircraft tires still uses an appreciable quantity of crude rubber. Ninety per cent of the tires that go to the U. K. are for military use, the remainder for essential civilian services.

TIME TO "START DIGGING"

"Shelve everything else" and "start digging," was the advice a German radio speaker recently gave to men and women living along the West wall, as reported by the Federal Communications Commission. The speaker said that while the German words, "schanzen," which means to dig trenches and build earthworks, "smells of sweat and toil," it is "fine and manly" and "healthy exercise."

FAMINE, FLOODS, COLD, DARKNESS

"Famine, floods, cold and darkness" threaten the densely populated provinces of German-occupied Netherlands, the Netherlands Foreign Minister warned in a recent press conference reported by Aneta, official Netherlands news agency. As a result of German inundation of Dutch farm lands, much of it with salt water, the Netherlands has lost a large proportion of its prospective 1944 crops—wheat, 30 per cent—barley, 40 per cent—sugar beets, 50 per cent—potatoes, 25 per cent—oil seeds, 25 per cent and oats, 10 per cent.

DANES BID RELUCTANT FAREWELL

When the Germans moved armed forces into Denmark, the Danes received them reluctantly. When the Germans, pressed on several fronts recently, tried to remove these forces, the Danes let them go the same way. One German division is said to have been delayed 16 days, according to the Danish Listening Post. On a freight train departing from Copenhagen, Danish saboteurs forced the crew to stop the train and disconnect four cars belonging to the German army, before the train was allowed to continue its journey. In other cases the saboteurs bombed and machine-gunned German trains.

PETROLEUM STOCKPILE IS DOWN

The stockpile of principal petroleum products for civilian use is now 29 per cent lower than it was in October pre-war levels, the Petroleum Administration for War reports. Civilian gasoline stocks are 39 per cent less, heating oils and diesel fuels are 12 per cent less and industrial fuels, 32 per cent less.

FARMERS BUY SURPLUS WAR GOODS

Much of the surplus construction materials used on 400 government projects that have been sold by the United States Surplus War Property Administration have gone to American farmers through recent auction sales held in collaboration with county farm agents. Shovels, picks, rope and left-over paint were among materials sold.

ROUND-UP

Half the candy bars, candy rolls and candy in packages designed to sell for five cents and procured during the last quarter of this year are to be set aside for procurement by the armed forces, according to a WFA order. In spite of war, since Pearl Harbor, by making short extension from existing lines, the rural Electrification Administration has electrified 160,000 farm homes, the Department of Agriculture says. To help care for sick injured and wounded soldiers, the army Medical Department has appealed to Red Cross Nurses' Aids with hospital experience to apply for civilian jobs in army hospital or dispensary services. Eligible women should write Medical Division U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, 25, D. C., for the Army Nurses Aid Booklet. Metal license plates issued by State or local government may now be made from metal, as a result of a removal of WPB restrictions. WPB has approved the building in the U. S., of nine hydro-electric turbine generators to replace those destroyed by the Russians in their dnieprostroi plant when they retreated before the Germans in 1941. No one thing, say the Russions, will do so much to remember the damage done by the Germans as restoration of this power plant.

HIGHLAND F. B. A. HEARS REVIEW OF YEAR'S WORK

The Highland Farm Bureau Association held its regularly monthly meeting at the Highland school on Friday evening, Oct. 13 with thirty people present.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Elmer Mason, and in his talk he reminded us that the convention this year would meet at Waco, Nov. 28 and 29. He stated facts and figures on what the Farm Bureau Association has done for the farmers in regard to prices on eggs and wheat and also what our own organization has accomplished. "Last October we met at the Highland school with sixteen present. We assisted in Red Cross, War fund, War Bond drives and had a speaker on making income tax reports.

"We assisted the Highland H. D. Club in their waste paper collection and collected over 1,000 pounds. That amount of waste paper, according to my weights and figures would be enough paper to print 7000 Readers Digests, package 375,000 shot gun shells, 24,000 paper plates or make 16,000 large grocery sacks. We are still collecting waste paper, so bring yours to the next Farm Bureau meeting."

After the business meeting "42" was played and refreshments of pie and coffee was served.

The next meeting will be Friday evening, Nov. 10.

Mrs. McCaslin concluded this devotional by leading in a prayer for missionaries.

PEOPLE OF TEXAS

The hour has struck when the people of Texas must decide whether to perpetuate the Communistic-C. I. O. Bureaucracy at Washington, or restore our Constitutional Democratic form of Government.

The Texas Regulars Party has been organized to fight for true Democratic principles. In truth it is the real Democratic Party. The Texas Regulars Party will head the third column on the official November ballot.

TEXAS REGULARS STAND FOR:

1. Unstinted support of our Armed Forces and their Real Leaders and the hastening of the termination of the War and Return of our Sons and Daughters.
2. Restoration of Constitutional Government.
3. States' rights, local self government and individual freedom.
4. The removal of Federal Shackles from Southern agriculture and industry.
5. Laboring unions freed from the control of corrupt and racketeering leaders.
6. Enforcement of all Texas laws against mixing of White and Negro blood, and restoration of White Man's Primary.

TEXAS REGULARS OPPOSE:

1. The Communistic, atheistic doctrine of a New Deal.
2. The Federal enforcement of social equality between the Whites and Negroes of the South.
3. Centralization of governmental power in boards and bureaus not elected by or responsible to the people.
4. Federal domination of Texas Free School System.
5. Bureaucratic tinkering with Southern Agriculture.

WHAT WE ARE FIGHTING FOR ABROAD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR AT HOME.

It costs money to carry on this fight. If you believe in our principles, give us your support and contribute if you can. Fill in this blank and sent it, with contribution of $1.00 or more, to Judge Merritt Gibson, State Campaign Manager, Texas Regulars, 624 Littlefield Building, Austin, Texas. Send in your name whether you contribute or not.

91 Year Old Man Visited Nephew Geo. Hodges Here

J. L. "Babe" Hodges of Pratt, Kansas, spent last week at the home of his nephew, George Hodges. He is 91 years old, but looks to be much younger.

Uncle Babe, who rode the range long before there was an Amarillo, is well-acquainted with many old timers, especially ranchers and railroad men.

A six-footer, and straight, Uncle Babe is a retired Rock Island engineer. He retired 21 years ago at the age of 70.

He was born in Grayson county, near Sherman. Uncle Babe enjoys talking with the pioneers of the Panhandle. "Why when I was 18 years old," he said, "I drove 3,000 head of cattle from below the Rio Grande River to Dodge City, Kan., in four months.

"That was in '77," Uncle Babe said:

"We followed the Western trail via the Brazos River through Stonewall County near the Double Mountains and Claremore and straight on into Dodge City by the way of Altus, Okla. Oklahoma was an Indian territory then, and we had to feed the Indians to keep them from attacking us."

Not so long ago, after Uncle Babe and his devoted wife celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on June 15, the "Missus passed away."

V-NEWS

While there is an abundance of canning apples, tomatoes, and ripe peppers, many home makers are making relishes, pickles, and conserves. Following are some recipes that are suggested by Lou Ella Patterson, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Apple Chutney

1 quart tart apples
1 cup raisins
2 medium-sized white onions, minced
2 red peppers
½ cup vinegar
1 cup water
1 cup sugar
1 tbs. white mustard seed
1 tsp. celery seed
¼ tsp. paprika
¼ tsp. salt

Combine these ingredients, and cook rapidly until the apples are tender and the mixture is thick and clear (about 30 minutes). It may be necessary to add more water if the apples are not juicy. Pour into clean, hot jars, seal and process in water bath 5 minutes.

Pickled Apples

1 lb. apples, cut in fourths
⅔ cup sugar
⅔ cup vinegar
1 cup water
Cinnamon stalk
Cloves
3 slices lemon

Boil the sugar, vinegar, water, and spices 5 minutes. Add the apples and cook the mixture slowly until the apples are clear and tender. Pour it in hot, clean jars, seal and process in water bath 5 minutes.

Tomato-Apple Conserve

2 cups tart apples, peeled and diced
2 cups ripe tomatoes, peeled and chopped
1 lemon, grated rind and juice
2 ⅔ cups sugar.
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup English walnuts (if desired)

Cook the apples and tomatoes, without adding any water, until they are tender. Add the sugar and lemon, and cook the mixture until it is clear. Add nuts at the last. Turn conserve into clean jelly glasses and cover it with paraffin when it is cold.

Chorus Will Sing Sunday at the Church of Christ

The young people's chorus from the Central Church of Christ in Amarillo will be featured Sunday afternoon at the local Church of Christ church as a part of the revival meeting which will continue through Sunday night.

Palmer Wheeler, who is at present conducting the song services for the meeting, is director of this chorus which has appeared in most of the cities over the Panhandle and has been regularly scheduled in radio programs in Amarillo. The chorus' rendition of the better songs and hymns is very inspiring and the public is cordially invited to attend this service beginning Sunday at 2:30 o'clock, as well as all services throughout the week.

Much interest is being manifested in the series of gospel messages, delivered daily at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. by E. C. McKenzie of Nashville, Tennessee.

Sunday at noon, basket lunch will be served at the church, and the afternoon will be devoted to singing. In addition to the numbers to be given by the chorus, there will be congregational singing led by various song directors from neighboring cities.

Hallowe'en Queen Nominees Hold First Place in Class Campaigns

Class Committees Select Various Carnival Booths

Holding the spotlight in class activities was the election of Carnival queen candidates in regular class meetings held last Friday.

Since the main issue was to select a carnival queen the seniors elected Nancy Wilson as their representative, who in turn selected Don Standley as her escort. Margaret Lair, Vergie Ruth Haines, and Tommy Thompson were appointed by the president to make suggestions for a booth in the Hallowe'en Carnival.

In the junior class Johnnie Frances Wallen was chosen for carnival queen candidate. Her escort will be Ray McDonald. Other business was the discussion of ways to make money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Also the class chose a dart-throwing booth and the selling of confetti as their part in the Hallowe'en Carnival.

Sophomores elected Louise Tucek as their carnival queen candidate and Dick Milford as escort. They will sell kisses at the carnival.

Frances Standley, president of the Freshman Class, was elected to be Hallowe'en Queen candidate. Nancy Nicklaus was selected as alternate. Clifford Burtz will be the freshman queen's escort.

Gerald McDuff, president of the eighth grade class, and Mary Lee McGehee, secretary, were selected to represent the class as carnival queen and escort during the campaign.

Seventh graders chose Marilyn Small to serve as their carnival Queen candidate with Albert Craig as her escort. They discussed plans for a booth but made no definite decisions.

LAMENT OF A SPONGE

Most people think a sponge lives in the sea or ocean; yet, there might be some in our school. As Webster says: "A sponge never accomplishes anything in life." Let's ask the question: Have I been a sponge? Do I dawdle and waste time?

This is a new school year; what a time for new resolutions, and a whole school term to put them into practice!

Are my study habits fixed? If not, I have time and opportunity to develop them now. Am I pleased with each day's achievement? If not, what is to hinder my improvement each day? Does the voice of conscience continually nag me: "You're lazy; you're neglecting your studies; you're developing into just a 'get-by'."

My patriotic sence of justice is aroused. I determine once again to rise in my determination to make this the best year of my school life for myself, my school, and my country.

Themes Regenerate Annual Moral-Blow

Fire prevention themes! Oh! No! This is typical of the exclamations heard in Canyon High School last week when teachers broke the news. Try hard as they would the "sophisticated" seniors couldn't evade this yearly headache. Bright and early Tuesday morning students began rushing the librarian for reference material with which to concoct their latest masterpieces. By late afternoon the public library as well as our own was fresh-out of dope about fire.

Burning midnight oil, almost every English enthusiast slaved over what he hoped would be a prize-winning theme. Marking out words, adding adjectives, looking for synonyms, and changing in general the content of the reference without changing its meaning was done with no little difficulty. Finally the precious manuscripts were finished with what each writer knew was not his individual touch.

Wednesday during the respective English classes each John Doe passed his annual model to the front of the room.

Patiently and otherwise, old-timers and new-comers in Canyon High are waiting for the announcement of the prize-winners. To the lucky stiff who has a talent for such things and wrote the best theme goes $7.50. Runner-uppers, second and third places, receive $5.50 and $2.50 respectively. These prizes are given by G. G. Foster Real Estate, which has sponsored contests of this type in Canyon High for several years.

English teachers, couldn't you hurry just a little bit! The suspense is killing! Oh, murder!

Speakers Address Canyon Students

In cooperation with the association of pastors, Canyon High School students gathered for an assembly, Monday morning. Led by J. Spencer Winn, president of the Student-Faculty Congress, the student body sang "Onward Christian Soldiers," "Work For the Night Is Coming," and "Come Thou Almighty King."

W. J. Phelps, pastor of the Assembly of God, Joseph Findley, pastor of the First Christian Church, Robert W. Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Raymond Jones, pastor of the Assembly of God, Amarillo, Dr. Roy L. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Dr. B. C. McKenzie, pastor of the Church of Christ, Nashville, Tennessee, were present.

Rev. Joseph Findley made a short talk on "Faith In God" and Dr. McKenzie talked on "The Importance of Religion."

Total War Bond sales for the first week of our Bond campaign amounted to $131.25, while stamps totaled $36.25.

Students and teachers of Canyon High School have pledged to buy $1165 worth of Bonds and Stamps for the purchase of a jeep by December 7, 1944.

If we are to reach this goal and other goals, every student and teacher must buy Bonds and Stamps to the fullest possible extent this week, next week, and every week until the final Victory is won.

Basketball got off to a roaring start Monday with many of the guys from last year's squad back as well as several new members. That famous left hand of Don Standley seems to be functioning in the best way possible. Also, his fellow forward, Spence Winn, is well rested from the summer and is really putting 'em through. Others of the squad see to really be "on the ball" also.

Charles Ray Kelso, otherwise known as Romeo, has been selected manager of the basketball team for the coming year. Good luck to you, boy.

Noon time finds many boys, and Betty Brown, out kicking the old football around. Too bad they can't exhibit their skill on the field.

Most of the basketball boys are decked out in new equipment. New shoes, warm-up shirts, and sweat socks have all been received. New warm-up suits, white with purple trimmings, are expected soon.

Are pep squad leaders going to be selected at the first of the year? All the fellows sure appreciate the lift the pep squad gave at games during last year. Keep up the good work girls.

Bellah Entertains Shorthand Class

Members of the shorthand class met at the home of Mrs. Alfred Bellah Monday morning at 12:15 for a buffet luncheon. Those present were Mary Frances Colwell, Frances Alice Harp, Rose Hugg, Lorene Seales, Marilyn Johnigan, Velta Speer, Mary Ann Bellah, Sue Ann Moreman, James Lair, Charles Taylor, Tommy Thompson, J. Spencer Winn, and Miss Birdie Cleo Crabtree, commercial teacher.

Mrs. Bellah, with the aid of the members of the class, prepared lunch, which consisted of steak, gravy, bread, combination salad, potato chips, pickles, olives and chocolate cake.

Each member brought his own steak. Students in the class and Miss Crabtree washed the dishes and helped clean up after the luncheon.

Members Discuss Spanish II Booth

Grace Boyd, president, called the Spanish II club members to order Wednesday morning for the second meeting of the year. Club members discussed what they should have for a carnival booth. Suggestions were: fortune telling, Mexican food, and selling souvenirs. It was suggested that they should see some of the Mexican people who live in Canyon to see if they would help the class put on a Spanish program.

Ellen Sanders and Sue Ann Moreman led the songs, Alla en el Rancho Grande, Cielito Lindo, Donde a Donde, Hermanito, and Pancho Tiene un Caballo.

CHS Exes Visit Alma Mater

"If you keep Canyon High as shining as it has been in the past, it will rise still higher." Thus Boatswains Mate 2-c Fred Kellum expressed his feelings toward the school which he last attended in 1941. Both Fred and Capt. Milton E. Crow, former teacher in Canyon High School, visited in CHS and in Canyon last week.

Fred has been in what he termed "the paradise of the South Pacific," and saw action in the Marshalls, Gilberts, Midway, and Honolulu. In answer to a question, he said that he definitely would NOT like to go back to the Pacific after the war, although "it's all right."

About his past three years' experience, Fred said, "If I had it to do over, I'd do it again." With destination unknown, he will next be with an amphibious beach battalion, probably in the Pacific again.

Capt. Crow has seen 17 months of service in Africa and Italy and earned a number of decorations. He is a graduate of W. T. S. C. and taught history in CHS in 1940-41.

Hot Lunches Are New Innovation

Balanced Meals Follow Government Regulations

Canyon High School's new lunch room opened for the first time last Friday.

Stewed meat, cabbage and tomato salad, apple sauce and home-made cookies were served to about 302 students the first day. Weiners, macaroni and tomatoes, carrot sticks, Italian prunes and cookies were served to about 350 students Monday.

Mrs. J. H. Lisle, manager of the lunchroom, is helped by Mrs. Letha Lehnick, Mrs. William Dickerson and Mrs. Gene Peppard.

In order to avoid confusion grade school children have their lunch hour from 12:15 until 1:00, while high school students are served from 1:00 to 1:45.

Trustees, L. D. Winn, Ross Craig, Paul Lindsey, Clay Cooper, and Wilford Taylor, Jr., ate in the lunchroom Monday.

"I am very well pleased with the way the lunchroom is operating and hope that soon we shall be able to serve meals in such a way that each student who eats will get all he wants for 20c," said Mr. Speer.

Grade Notes

On the sick list this week in Mrs. Robert Orton's room were Geneva Bourgeois and Doris Batt. Dennie Lowane Downs, Claude, is a newcomer in this class. The first grade has divided into two groups for the purpose of stimulating interest in the sale of bonds and stamps. The losing group will treat the winning group.

Mrs. T. W. Collins' new student, Odin Jones, hails from Winchester, Indiana. Her class members have been making a study of nature and have pressed some flowers. Showing their talent by freehand drawings has occupied part of their time.

Nature study has been the highlight of Mrs. Stella Murrell's room. Her students have brought three caterpillars to study and observe.

Bobby Joe Downs is a new student in Mrs. A. K. Goodman's third grade.

Mrs. L. M. Cousins' fourth grade pupils have been drawing colorful flowers which now decorate the room.

Students in Mrs. Hazel Atchley's fourth grade and Mrs. Mitchell Jones' social study classes have been making placards and posters pertaining to fire prevention and fire hazards.

Standard reading achievement tests were given in Mrs. W. E. Miller's room. Charts were made in spelling and reading.

The saxaphone player makes less, playing for harmony, than he would for hush money.

Homemakers Do Summer Work

Making an extension of the preceding year's work were a number of homemaking students who took summer projects. Those completing their aims and receiving half-credits for their work are as follows: Alice Prichard, Ruth Prichard, Norma Jo Currie, Frances Gooch, Louise Tucek, Bobbye Lee Graham, Bernice Anderwald, Billye Ponder, Jean Prater and Rowena Jones.

Selection and construction of clothing, food preservation and storage, yard improvement and room improvement were some of the aims taken by these students.

Mrs. Ewell Fowler, homemaking teacher, visited these girls at various times during the summer, giving instruction and guidance.

On September 6, ten guests attended the achievement day in the clothing department of the Home Economics laboratory. After each girl gave a report and displayed her project, punch and cookies were served in the dining room to those present.

Bobbye Lee Graham, a junior, completed 400 hours' work, over three times as much as is required. Clothing selection and construction, meal planning and yard improvement composed her aims. Bobbye planned and prepared 25 meals, constructed 18 garments and completed 180 hours of yard improvement.

Some people walk to reduce. Others are reduced to walking.

To determine the real value of money, just try to borrow some.

Dorothy Scott—just be patient a little longer. The boys are beginning to notice you at last—and how! Several of the ROMEOS are letting go with the complimentary compliments.

Wayne Kelso is really giving some girls the whirl in the seventh grade. Sue Jennings and Marilyn Small are the lucky ones.

Was there something wrong there Friday between Don Standley and Betty Brown? After he gave Nancy Wilson his whole-hearted support in the queen election and then was seen at the ball game with her Friday afternoon. . . . Oh, well, maybe it's just time for those "New Fall Changes."

Our new president, Mr. Winn, is going to have to enforce his plank of "ten minute intermissions for hand holding" after all. One wild rumor after another comes out of Mrs. Knott's Algebra II class about the "carrying on."

That Casanova, James Lair, is really playing the field these inspiring fall days. He just can't seem to decide which lovely he wants, but while he's deciding—well that's another story.

Ellen Root should certainly press her advantage of being the only girl in a class of boys, boys, and more boys. Well, Ellen, what are you going to do about it?

"Who are you going to ask Sadie Hawkin's?" Cal has heard that so very often since "get-your-man" began to come into the air. You'd better start being especially nice to the girls, boys, because THE TIME WILL COME.

Votes Designate Classes' Choice

Thompson and Lair Show Character of Candidates

Culminating a campaign of a week's duration, the student body chose J. Spencer Winn President of the Student-Faculty Congress Friday morning. J. Spencer, two-year letterman in basketball and four-year letterman in band, was opposed by Betty Brown, another senior, and with his office takes the responsibility of presiding over assemblies and leading the Student Council in its undertaking.

In the assembly held in the form of a national convention Thursday morning Tommy Thompson and Margaret Lair, campaign managers for Spence and Betty, respectively, officially nominated the candidates, with seconding speeches from students of various classes.

Following an announcement by Supt. J. B. Speer concerning the opening of the school lunchroom, Max Bellah led the students in singing the School Song.

Throughout the entire campaign placards and campaign slogans set forth the talents of each student.

STUDENTS! TEACHERS! ATTENTION!

Your annual pledges must be in by Friday afternoon. Turn them in to Margaret Lair, business manager of the Eagle's Tale. Vergie Haines and Betty Brown are working on this committee. A table will be stationed in the front hall and students may pay these girls. Don't forget it or you may not get a yearbook!

Farmers Organize Future Clubwork

Future farmers met Wednesday, Oct. 11, and elected two officers, Sandy Oliver, vice-president, and Malcolm Gunter, secretary.

Dues were undecided and the motion was "tabled" until further information can be obtained.

A committee composed of James Inman, Charles Wright, and Billy Thurman was appointed to select the girls who will be candidates for F. F. A. Sweetheart.

The club decided to run the popcorn popper at the Hallowe'en Carnival as they did last year.

Since future farmers this year have no teacher and will probably not be able to obtain one until after the war, it was decided to have called meetings till later in the year, when regular meetings may be scheduled.

YOUR ELECTRIC RATES HAVE BEEN CUT!

What important household item costs less now than before the war? Electricity! While other costs are still going up, your electric rates "took a cut" last month to new low levels. Bills since the first of October have been figured on the new rates.

As a matter of fact, electricity really offers you double savings. While general living costs are up about 25 per cent above pre-war costs, the price of electricity has not gone up at all. That's saving No. 1. Now your household electricity has actually gone down in cost—saving No. 2. Any way you look at it, electricity is the biggest bargain you can find today.

Not only does your electricity cost less, but it furnishes you the same efficient, dependable service that you have become accusotmed to. Pre-war quality at less than pre-war prices makes electricity the "bright spot" of your family budget. When new appliances again become available, you can enjoy using them freely, at lower cost than ever. Meanwhile, lower rates are not just a post-war promise. You are receiving the savings right now.

Buffs Are First to Score on Sky Giants

Saturday evening the Buffaloes of West Texas State took the game to the Sky Giants and managed to score the only touchdown chalked up against the Amarillo servicemen so far this year. The final score was 38-7 in favor of the Sky Giants.

The star-studded service eleven were doped to push the Buffs, as the Sky Giants rate fourth in the nation among service clubs. But as the evening passed the Army team found they had their hands full. The Hustlin' Buffs fought the entire evening in a game that was one of the most thrilling ever to be played in Buffalo Stadium. The grand stands overflowed with people and the pep leaders and band made a display of loyalty that can not be challenged. The student body, faculty and ex-students backed the Buff squad one hundred per cent.

Herb Burton of Auburn in collegiate life, started on the Buff 31 and ran to the 17 and lateraled to Johnny Gill, who raced over for the first touchdown for the Sky Giants. The opening score came in the first quarter. A bad pass from center nullified the attempt to convert.

Buffs March Down Field

Bobby Paffrath, former Minnesotan and star of the Sky Giants, raced 46 yards for a touchdown and Gill added the extra point also in the first period. A few minutes later Paffrath boosted his scoring record by plunging over the goal line from the 3-yard stripe. This time Gill missed the try for the point.

The Buffs took a kickoff on their own 26-yard line and marched down the field rolling up four first downs and drove to the Giants' 1-inch line, where Bledsoe plunged over for the Buff score. Glasgow kicked the goal as the second quarter opened. The Buffs continued to threaten additional scores during the remainder of the period which, however remained scoreless.

The Buffs held the fans on the edge of their seats until near the end of the third period as they romped across the field, but never reached pay dirt. The Sky Giants rallied their forces and Joe Grant scored from the 7-yard line to reopen the goal-post activity. Burton missed the try for the extra point.

The Buffs played inspired football but the more experienced service men's eleven proved to carry the scoring weight.

The Sky Giants go to Butler Field in Amarillo Saturday to meet the Norman Zoomers, another undefeated eleven. The Buffs have an open date next week, but go back into action against the Red Raiders of Texas Tech on the night of Oct. 27 at Butler Field in Amarillo.

Paper manufacturing from wood pulp, in Maine, dates back to 1880. Ten years after the establishment of the paper mill industry there was a rapid development of the lumber, granite, ice and fishery trades.

Are you a paradox? A paradox is a business man who throws a Justin boot at his Big Ben alarm clock, rolls off his Ostermoor mattress onto a Congoleum rug, hops into his B. V. D.'s, runs his Gillette razor over his Mennen-lathered face, consumes a hurried breakfast of Shredded Wheat and a cup of Postum, lights a Chesterfield at his store and then tells the advertising solicitor of a newspaper:

"Advertising doesn't pay; it never sold me anything."

An entire chapter of Texas newspaper humor is to be found in your columnist's new book, "Tall Talk from Texas," from which the above is quoted. (The book, by the way, exhausted four editions in three weeks—for which the author is deeply grateful to thousands of friends).

Just a few more samples from the book:

A Texas editor received a letter asking "How long cows should be milked." He replied, "The same as short cows."

Broncho Bill saved a lot of lives one time—he shot the camp cook.

This is a Texas story—even if it did happen in New York City. The chief figure was the famous (or infamous) slave-driving editor of the old New York World. The foreman of a Texas ranch had eloped with the ranch owner's daughter and they were in Manhattan on their honeymoon. The city editor sent a reporter for an interview.

The groom met him at the door, cussed him out, blacked his eye and threatened to kick him down the steps if he came back. The reporter went to a telephone in the lobby and reported the treatment he had received and the threat that had been hurled.

The "chief" banged his fist on the table as he shouted into the telephone, "You go back and tell that blankety-blank that he can't intimate me."

D-DAY IS HISTORY. And V-Day may well be, by the time you read these words!

But as a recent editorial in the September 9 issue of Collier's points out: "If we don't baby our cars and tires along as carefully as we can, the ominous fact is that we can run into a serious motor-transport breakdown on the home front."

The blunt words of the editorial echo what Phillips and its service station men have been saying month after month, beginning even prior to Pearl Harbor.

We quote it because some few motorists may have thought that our insistent emphasis on tire and car care was motivated by self-interest rather than by our patriotic sense of duty. So again we say, in our country's interest and in your own, be frugal with your dwindling stock of tire and car miles. Visit your Phillips 66 Service Station at least once a week for tire and car-saving services.

Visiting Pastor Is Speaker Tuesday at Rotary Luncheon

Rev. A. A. Brian of Brownfield was the speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. He is a member of the Brownfield club.

Important things to remember were discussed by the speaker. We cannot understand the Germans and Japs without knowing their history. Therefore, it is well that we look at the history of this nation. From a physical standpoint, we have made great progress. The life line of the nation has been extended as people know how to take care of themselves. The physical education program of our schools is making young men larger and heavier than they were during the last war.

Our schools are doing a wonderful work in preparing boys and girls to become the men and women of tomorrow. But local citizens must wake up and give the schools all that they deserve or the federal government will take over the school system.

There is a lesson for us coming out of Germany. In 1921 Hitler talked on the street corner, stirring the imagination of youth. He caught their fancy ,and as a result established his immoral camps where youths were trained in obedience to Hitler. Before Hitler, Germany had the best schools and universities in the world. The educators were thrown into prison camps. Had some preacher appealed to Hitler and converted him to Christianity, the history of Europe would have been changed.

The speaker urged that Rotarians and other civic leaders turn their faces back to the churches. We must set the right example to the youth of the community whom we expect to be the leaders of tomorrow. That is the only way in which we shall make America the great nation that we all desire.

Visitors were: Rev. Kirk Rogers of Plainview; Arch Hunsley, Earl O'Keefe, John McKnight, Allen Early, Roy G. Boger, all of Amarillo; Rev. Marvin Boyd of Hereford; Capt. W. O. Harris of North Carolina.

Hall McNutt of Stillwater, Okla., will speak at the local club next Tuesday.

Mrs. Garl Cone visited in Canyon one day last week as she was enroute to San Diego to be with her husband, Ensign Garl Cone, who wired her to meet him there.

M. C. Sanders is showing off some mighty big sweet potatoes. Two of them weighed 7½ pounds. 15 pounds of potatoes were dug from under one hill.

Lt. Claude L. McGowen, son of Mrs. Mamie McGowen of the McGowen House, has been awarded the Air Medal in England. Lt. McGowen, who entered the service Jan. 28, 1943, received his wings in Midland. He is a graduate of W. T. and has been attached to the Eighth Air Force as the bombardier of a B-24 Liberator.
